PRAYER MATTERS:

Please continue to pray for Pam's granddaughter Raegan, very unwell with an as yet undiagnosed condition picked up in India. Please pray for all troubled by end of winter bugs, especially Fenella, and that our older members keep well.

Pray for Ian, continuing chemo, especially on Wednesdays when he receives treatment in hospital; for Carleen who is still experiencing pain after her knee operation; and for Elizabeth, especially that she will be free of pain.

Prayers for calming of tension with North Korea, for relief after flooding in Bangladesh and the USA; and prayers for our own country, for a fair election campaign, high voter involvement, and wisdom in casting our votes

ELECTION CAFÉ .....23rd September

We intend to run our Election Cafe again this year, on election day, from 10 to approximately 2:00pm. This is a fantastic opportunity for St Oswald's that only comes up once every four years, when the whole community comes to us. It's a chance for both fund-raising and friend-raising and has been successful in the past on both counts. We'd love as much help as possible from all our parish community with baking for our stall, and selling and greeting on the day. We'll be doing a letter-box drop just before the election to let people know about the stall.

There is a sign up list for those who can come and help with cake stall, barbecue and drinks at the back of the church. Any queries please contact the office or Barbara on 021 0847 6777

RYMAN HEALTHCARE:

Have delivered books and pamphlets about what is happening at the building site. On the table at the front door of the church
Everything is coming along nicely, though they are running a little behind schedule, hoping to have it open in March 2018.
